

Millwood Dam, Others Okayed by the Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has received from the Senate a bill to authorize future appropriations of $1.2 billion dollars for flood control, navigation and other water projects.

Several Arkansas projects are included in the measure. The Senate passed the bill yesterday after rejecting several proposed amendments in the name of economy. Vote was 42-22.

The measure is for authorization only and does not appropriate funds for the projects.

Arkansas projects and estimated costs were:

Comprehensive plan including Lone Rock and Gilbert reservoirs, 57.7 million dollars; Millwood Dam and seven upstream reservoirs, $53,235,000; St. Francis River basin, $35,674,000; Bontif and Tensas rivers and Bayou Macon basin, $1,212,000; and White River backwater project, $2,360,000.

Last year President Eisenhower vetoed a bill which was almost identical with the one passed by the Senate yesterday.

Belittles Fear Over Atom Fall-Out

By WILLIAM B. HARWOOD
BALTIMORE (AP) — An Atomic Energy Commission physician says Americans worried about the effects of fall-out on their offspring are running away from a shadow when the substance is going to get us.

Dr. C. W. Schilling, deputy director of the AEC's Division of Biology and Medicine, said last night excessively hot baths can be as damaging to the human sex glands as radioactive fall-out of five years from the testing of atomic weapons.

He also noted that natural, or background, radiation from the earth's crust and from cosmic rays has been with us since the beginning of time and accounts for 4.3 roentgens (the radiometer measurement comparable to an X-ray), or the biggest dose of radiation that the average person receives from conception to age 30.

X-ray and fluoroscope account for another three roentgens. Dr. Schilling said, while radioactive fall-out is a testing of atomic weapons continues at the same rate as the last five years — accounts for only a tenth of a roentgen.

He called for proper but careful use of radiation by industry and medicine to make certain that any radiation exposure, no matter how slight, be justified by the benefits gained.

Dr. Schilling also told about 600 chemists, physicists and engineers attending a three-day colloquium on the effects of radiation on materials of little known, but which offers appreciable protection from radiation under certain circumstances. He said the chemical AET, known scientifically as ethylenediaminetetraacetic acid, has been found effective in reducing radiation effects in 80 per cent of the animals on which it was tested.

However, the drug's usefulness is limited, he said, because it must be taken not more than four hours before the subject is to be irradiated. It is also extremely toxic which in some cases offsets its radiation-absorption qualities.

Woman Jailed in Pochontas Shooting

POCHONTAS (AP) — A middle-aged widow has been jailed with her consort in the shooting of a man near Pochontas, Wednesday night. Prosecutor James Robb said yesterday.

He said no charges have been filed against Mrs. Maggie Mullens.

Melburn Virgin, 28, of Pochontas was in critical condition at a hospital in Poplar Bluff, Mo. Robb said Ray Clark of Pochontas told him Virgin drove a car into Mrs. Mullens' yard, knocking down a fence. Clark and Virgin had been drinking, Robb said.

Robb said Mrs. Mullens ordered the pair away at the point of a .22 caliber rifle and the shooting followed.

Thinks Arkansas Workers Better

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Are industrial workers in Arkansas better than those in other states?

At least one big manufacturing firm thinks so. William R. Smith of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission told a meeting here last night.

Smith, addressing the Business Professional Women's Club, said officials of the company told him that production and efficiency records at its Arkansas plant were 10 per cent higher than in any of its other plants across the nation.

The Lake Village man would not name the firm, but said it produced refrigerators and things like that.

Smith predicted that Arkansas' industrial complex and per capita income would be doubled in the next 10 years.

Kidnaped U. S. Woman Found, Officials Say

By JOE MORRIS

TEHRAN, Iran, (UP) — A U.S. official reported from the wild country southeast of Tehran today that the missing wife of a slain American has been abandoned by the bandits who kidnaped her.

Clark Gregory, chief of the U.S. Point Four mission to Iran, reported by telephone from the town of Zahedan that Mrs. Anita Carol, of Issaquah, Wash., no longer was with the four fleeing bandits who killed her husband, another American and two Iranians in an ambush in remote Baluchistan last Sunday.

There is only a 50-50 chance she is still alive, Gregory said. Gregory is on the scene directing the search by more than 1,000 Iranian police and army troops.

Zahedan is the point nearest the ambush site 300 miles southeast of Tehran which has communications with the capital.

Iranian officials reported earlier that the kidnappers were fleeing across the Red Stone mountains of Baluchistan toward the Pakistan frontier in a desperate attempt to evade the tightening police net.

Gregory said the gendarmes at first lost the bandits' trail and then picked it up again last night after a heavy rainstorm.

Minstrel Draws Praise From Large Crowd

Enthusiastic approval by a near-capacity crowd greeted the opening performance of the 14th annual Kiwanis club minstrel last night in the auditorium of Hope High School. A repeat performance will be given at 8 p. m. tonight.

Miss Jan Reinhardt, blonde, blue-eyed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Reinhardt of 522 South Elm street, was crowned Junior High Queen of the minstrel. She led a field of six candidates, and sold a total of 144 tickets for a point total of 116,500.

The Senior High Queen will be crowned tonight at the beginning of the second half of the two-hour show. Competition appears keen among the senior candidates who are: Sandra Hobbs, Sara Ellis, Mary Margaret Dameron and Bobbie Rae Garrett.

A cast of 60 appeared in the show in a variety of acts that kept the crowd amused and in laughter. New stage decorations, new costumes and a new theatrical lighting system added much to a well rounded performance of safety and entertainment.

Another large crowd is expected for the final performance.

U. S. Dislikes But Can't Help Egyptian Plans

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has started consultations with Britain, France and several other friendly governments on Egyptian proposals for operating the Suez Canal.

An American reply is expected to be sent to Egypt in a few days.

Top officials who have been studying the Egyptian plan say privately they do not like it but that they see no prospect now of winning Egyptian agreement to any counter-proposal.

However, it is yet to be decided whether the plan will be accepted or rejected, or whether some modifications will be sought to make it more palatable to Western shipping nations.

Meanwhile, the State Department has advised American ships to go slow in resuming use of the strategic waterway which is expected to be reopened fully by April 10. In London, a Foreign Office spokesman said last night the British government gave similar advice to British shippers two days ago.

The Egyptian proposal, which has not yet been made public officially, is understood to call for collection of tolls by the Egyptian Canal Authority.

Egypt would set aside 25 per cent of the tolls for maintenance and operation and 5 per cent to compensate stockholders of the old Suez Canal Co.

Egypt also would reaffirm its commitment to an 1888 treaty guaranteeing free canal passage for all ships. Some provision is reported for appeals and arbitration procedures for any country which thought its shipping was being unfairly treated.

Several measures were vetoed by the governor yesterday, among them a bill which would have permitted movement of oversized trailers on Arkansas highways.

The Sunday operation bill would have the effect of repealing old blue laws in cities which want to legalize business operations on that day.

Faubus said he vetoed the trailer measure because it would have jeopardized the state's federal matching money if it had become law.

He also turned down two bills dealing with school enrollment. He would have denied admission unless a child's sixth birthday occurred on or before Nov. 1, and the other would have required a birth certificate for admission.

Other bills vetoed were measures to extend the border tax rate to exempt funds held by municipal waterworks and national farm labor associations from the state escheat law, to raise requirements for getting a barber's license, and to reduce the penalty for false statements made by an insurance agent.

Faubus said that of all the bills awaiting his action, the Arkansas Motor Vehicle Commission measure was causing him the most concern.

The measure, sponsored by the Arkansas Automobile Dealers Association, would prevent manufacturers from coercing a dealer by threatening to cancel his franchise. It also would establish a state commission with authority to revoke a dealer's license for unethical practices.

Faubus said he had placed the bill in the doubtful category.

From the Mississippi River to the Pacific the coming of spring will mean chilly weather, with below-normal readings expected over most of this area. But the eastern section of the nation will have about normal temperatures.

Spring usually brings more rainy days than dry ones and this year should be no exception. Precipitation should be heavy over most of the nation except for the Great Plains, the far Southwest, and east of the Appalachians where normal amounts are indicated.

Blue Law Bill Signed Into Law by Faubus

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A bill to allow city councils to control Sunday operation of businesses has been signed by Gov. Orval Faubus.

Several measures were vetoed by the governor yesterday, among them a bill which would have permitted movement of oversized trailers on Arkansas highways.

The Sunday operation bill would have the effect of repealing old blue laws in cities which want to legalize business operations on that day.

Prisoner Hit by Guards, Report Says

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Evidence indicates that guards stuck a prisoner in the brig at the Jacksonville Naval Air Station, Capt. W. S. Harris, station commander, said yesterday in a report on an investigation of alleged mistreatment of prisoners.

The Navy said it is a closed inquiry and no names can be given before it is completed.

Harris said several days ago when the investigation to date of the NAS Jacksonville brig has revealed evidence indicating irregularities consisting of the striking or an imposition of excessive exercise on several prisoners by certain guards.

The testimony of one former prisoner that his ear drums were perforated by blows on the head. Examination by medical authorities indicate that such perforations do exist. However, as of this time, as far as is known no indication of permanent impairment of hearing exists and the man continues under treatment.

A Chicago businessman, Peter De Young, vice president of the Big Hollow Sand and Gravel Corp., has said his son Richard, 18, spent 22 days in the Jacksonville NAS brig and was struck by a Marine sergeant there.

The boys' ear drums were broken, his father said.

Union Executive Group Suspends Teamsters' Beck

WASHINGTON (AP) — The AFL-CIO Executive Council today suspended Teamsters' boss Dave Beck as an AFL-CIO officer and ordered an inquiry into the entire Teamsters' Union.

Beck's suspension as an AFL-CIO vice president and council member is effective immediately, and until the outcome of charges being brought against him by the Executive Council.

The actions were announced by George Meany, AFL-CIO president, after a 2-hour council meeting.

Meany said Beck's suspension is effective immediately while the council considers charges against the Teamsters' chief based on what he termed Beck's actions in bringing the labor movement into disrepute and his failing to explain the many charges against him concerning use of Teamster union funds before the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee.

Beck pleaded his constitutional rights, invoking the Fifth Amendment, when questioned by the senators Tuesday and Wednesday. The amendment protects a witness against being required to give evidence that might be self-incriminating.

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON (AP) — The AFL-CIO Executive Council — organized labor's high command — gathers today to consider possible ouster moves against both Teamsters boss Dave Beck and his giant trucking union.

Beck, himself a member of the powerful, 29-man Executive Council, stayed at his home in Seattle. He flew there yesterday after spending two days here invoking the Fifth Amendment to avoid answering questions by Senate rackets investigators who said he converted to his personal use $320,000 of union funds.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, called the special council meeting Tuesday within minutes of learning that Beck had claimed the Fifth Amendment's constitutional privileges against self-incrimination.

A new AFL-CIO policy says union officers have the right to invoke the Fifth Amendment when they do so in connection with inquiries into their handling of union affairs; they forfeit the right to serve as union officials.

Beck issued a statement through his Washington office, saying he would not attend the council meeting and adding that no question before the Executive Council could be so urgent as to require any action or deliberation without providing the council members with more than a two-day notice.

Three were these other fast-breaking developments stemming from the Senate committee's sensational five weeks of hearings:

1. The Senate probes announced they had tripled their investigating staff to chase down tips on alleged misconduct rolling in at the rate of 500 a day from all over the country.

2. The investigators said they have launched a preliminary probe into alleged tieups between racketeers and Teamsters' officials in Oklahoma City. They said investigations have been completed and are ready for hearings soon into alleged improper union activities in Los Angeles, Scranton, Pa., and New York City.

3. Mayor Terry Schiunk of Portland, Ore., was arrested on two court indictments, one charging him with bribery and the other with perjury before a grand jury last summer. Schiunk denied before the Senate committee charges that he had accepted a $500 bribe.

4. Beck said he had received 1,000 communications pledging confidence in me. He also announced the Teamsters Union has appropriated a million dollars to establish a public relations office in Washington to give the unions views. There was no comment on this from the union's Washington headquarters.

5. More rank-and-file Teamsters members protests were reported against the union's leadership. Robert Miller, 37, a highway truck driver, repudiated some 2,000 of the Portland, Ore., area's 12,000 Teamsters members have formed a committee to work for removal of national officers they think no longer fit for office.

The AFL-CIO council jacks authority to oust Beck from the Teamsters Union helm. But it can move toward kicking him out of the council and could tell the Teamsters Union to get rid of him or face expulsion of the entire union from AFL-CIO ranks.

WASHINGTON (UP) — AFL-CIO Special Counsel Arthur J. Goldberg told a labor meeting with tongue in cheek yesterday that the AFL-CIO's ethical practices committee has written a new code entitled: "I can not get it for you wholesale."

Banker Caught in Blizzard Relents

CLAYTON, N. M. (AP) — A banker who did some deep thinking when he almost became a blizzard victim a few days ago has cut interest rates to help his rancher neighbors restock.

There will be ways and means for practically all of these people to go on, said F. H. Chilcote, president of the Farmers' Stockmen's Bank of Clayton.

He committed about $100,000 in loans yesterday to replace lost cattle.

Chilcote and his son-in-law Elden Reeves, vice president of the bank, were out almost 24 hours in the height of the storm, which devastated the northeast corner of New Mexico. Loss estimates range up to 5,000 cattle.

There is a profit . . . the stockholders will get it, the telegram said.

If there is a loss it cannot be charged to the rate payers.

In Faubus' office when he read the telegram were Little Rock financier J. T. Stephens whose brother, W. R. Stephens, is chairman of the Ark-La Board of Directors and several others including state Sons, Marshall Shackelford of El Dorado and Roy Riales of Mena and Rep. Marion Crank of Little Rock County.

The telegram said that the plant will be built by a new corporation which will be owned wholly by Ark-La.

J. Stephens said that as far as he knew additional details of the new corporation had not been decided on.

He said the plant would employ approximately 600 persons.

Faubus said that the proposed plant will be the second largest to be obtained since start of Arkansas' intensive industrialization program approximately two years ago.

He said it would be exceeded only by one of two new paper mills near Pine Bluff.

The cement plant will be the second in Arkansas.

The Ideal Cement Co. has a plant at Okla. in Howard County about 55 miles from site of the proposed Ark-La plant.

The telegram addressed to Faubus was dated this morning said.

At the plant site there exists extensive deposits of chalk formations outcropping to surface within approximately 2,000 acres from which raw materials will be taken. Estimated that the deposits of raw materials within the 2,000 acres are at least 100 years supply for type plant planned. . . . It is expected plant will be in operation in 18 months. Board's decision at regular monthly meeting followed careful survey of need for additional cement for new highway program and general construction program.

The new corporation will purchase natural gas from Ark-La at 2½ cents per thousand cubic feet. One reason board made decision was because Ark-La purchases its supplies from producers on take or pay basis. This means the company must pay for gas whether it is used or not. By building cement plant gas company will have a 22.5 cent market for approximately 10 million cubic feet of gas daily that heretofore has been sold as wasted gas. This is 2½¢ published rate with the same volume of industrial gas. It is further protection to the ratepayers of Arkansas against a strike or curtailment by the company's present big users.

The telegram said that it was believed the cement plant could be operated nine months a year on what up to now

3 BIG DAYS Starts Sunday

SAENGER

By William E. Gilroy, D. D.

I note that in some Sunday schools a lesson will be studied on the Last Judgment, and I wonder just what the average teacher and the average class will make out of the grim and tragic portrayal of Matthew 25:31-46.

There could not be a matter of more concern for mankind than the dramatic insistence upon God's judgment of men and nations.

But the subject is hardly suited for little children, and perhaps without some modification for any children. But all children should undoubtedly be early taught the fact of judgment, that doing right or doing wrong is about the most important thing in life.

Such lessons can be easily enforced both from the Bible and Mission Study Book.

The hostess served a dessert plate and coffee at the close of the meeting.

DOROTHY DIX

High-Handed Gal Is Learning a Lesson

Dear Dorothy Dix: For a year my soldier boy friend and I went together quite regularly, though not steady. Then I got tired of him and gave him the brush-off. Later I realized how much I liked him, invited him to our freshman hop, and he accepted. That was two months ago, and I haven't heard from him since. I'm not interested in dating other boys. How can I win my soldier back?

AUDERY

Dear Audery: Perhaps you'll never win him back, but the experience will help you win and keep the next nice boy you like.

From this small romantic disaster you can learn not to be too quick to form judgments. Many a boy who seems a drip at first turns out to be quite a person. You might also remember that boys have feelings, too. They don't relish brush-offs. They are particularly sensitive to the pick-me-up, put-me-down and pick-me-up again technique.

Paste these pointers in your scrap book, Audery. They'll come in handy someday.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My husband is a disabled war veteran and a very nervous man. If his family would just let me alone, he wouldn't be so bad, but their constant nagging and interference are enough to drive anybody crazy. He says he wants to move to Florida and get away from them.

BADGERED

Dear Badgered: If you feel the move would help, why not make it? Your husband undoubtedly draws a pension from the government which would be as much as adequate in Florida as it is up north. If not more so. Investigate the possibilities.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm 17 and very much in love with my boy friend; we are almost engaged. I have a 14 year old sister who is much more attractive than I. Last week I brought my boy friend home to meet my parents. When he saw my sister, he couldn't take his eyes off her. She encouraged him. A few days later he called and asked her for a date. Now I don't speak to either of them.

TERRY

Dear Terry: How come you got to the stage of "almost being engaged" without having your boy friend meet the folks? As for little sister, she should be spanked and told something about the quality of loyalty, which apparently is an unknown word to her. This is a job for your parents. As for your beau, if he could be so easily won from you, he never was worth having.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a girl of 16, going out pretty steady with a man of 24. He's married but separated. This is his second marriage. His wife is trying to get him tense or false assumption in what we're, and in what we do.

CONFUSED

Dear Confused: If his wife wants him, by all means let her have him. A girl of 16 can rack up enough headaches of her own without taking on those that belong to someone else. Are you so unattractive that you can't interest an unattached youth your own age?

M. L. Blakeney

Mal W. Blakeney, missionary to India, will be the featured speaker at the Hope Gospel Tabernacle on Sunday March 31, the Rev. Land, pastor, announced today.

Mr. Blakeney will relate some of his experiences and will tell of the progress of missions in India. He is under appointment of the Foreign Missions Department of the Assemblies of God with headquarters in Springfield, Missouri.

Mr. Blakeney, the son of missionary parents, was reared in India. Since childhood he has felt the challenge to missionary service. In 1945, he and his wife went to Trinidad, British West Indies and spent three and one-half years there.

He then engaged in editorial work with the Assemblies of God for two years. Since 1950 he has been doing missionary work in North India. He served as District Superintendent of the Eastern District of the Assemblies of God of North India for three years.

He is well-versed in the Hindi language, was supervisor at the Interdenominational Language School in Landour for one school term.

Mr. Blakeney tells of a miraculous escape from landslides during monsoon rains in the Himalayas.

Elderly Negro Woman Dies in Fire

FAYETTEVILLE (AP) — An elderly Negro woman died last night in a fire that destroyed a 4-room frame house.

Fire Chief Burl Skelton said the charred body of the victim, Mrs. Oma Georgia, 81, was found wedged against the front door of the house. The woman, dressed in her night clothes, apparently suffocated while trying to escape the flames, he said.

The victim lived in the house with another woman who was away at the time for the fire watching television at a neighbor's house, Skelton said.

The fire chief said the roof of the burning house had collapsed by the time firemen reached the scene. He estimated the house had been burning about 30 to 45 minutes before the fire department was notified. Cause of the fire was not known.

She was accompanied by Mrs. Randolph Buie and Mrs. Charlie Willis and children who visited Mrs. Katie Moore and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cox of Fulton spent the weekend at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peachey spent the weekend in Houston, Texas with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wiseman and their new little grandson, William Scott. They were accompanied by Mrs. Sid Carrington who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Carrington.

Beck to Spend Million to Tell His Story

CHICAGO, (UP) — Dave Beck said today his Teamster Union will open a million dollar press agent bureau at Washington to tell the true story.

Beck, en route to Seattle from Washington where he spent two days testifying before the Senate Rackets committee, was interviewed by newsmen at Midway airport.

The belligerent boss of the mill-Beck's side of the matter, he said, the committee hearing was strictly a one-way street, "with members asking all the questions and no chance for rebuttal or cross-examination."

The union will appropriate $1 million to open a publicity and public relations bureau at Washington, Beck said, to tell the true story to our members and to the nation.

If the public is interested in Beck's side of the matter, he said, they'll get it.

Asked whether he would resign as president of the Teamsters, in view of his testimony before the committee, Beck demanded, Why should I?

Executive committee, called to 50,000 letters and telegrams from various individuals, all on my side."

Beck declined to comment on tomorrow's meeting of the AFL-CIO Executive committee, called to consider what action to take against him. The comment, the usually voluble Beck said, would be made after the meeting.

Questioned about the money which went to him from the Teamster treasury, Beck insisted that

Man Is Fatally Injured in Wreck

JACKSONVILLE, (AP) — Claude Howell, 46, of Egypt in Craighead County was injured fatally last night when his trailer-truck jackknifed on a U. S. Highway 67 bridge 1½ miles southwest of Cabot.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at a Jacksonville clinic.

State Trooper Carroll Henson said apparently Howell applied his brakes suddenly on wet pavement. Howell was thrown from the cab of his vehicle over a bridge railing and landed on a creek bank eight feet below the structure.

Henson said Howell's careening vehicle struck a tender of an oncoming truck driven by Roy Baldwin of Little Rock, who was uninjured.

all loans had been authorized by the organization. He modified this later to say the loans were authorized by individuals in the union — those in charge.

At any rate, he said, I made a fine profit on my investments and paid back all loans, always. Without a question, I'll come out of this with a clean slate, he said.

Robinson said he believed the quake, which lasted three-quarters of a minute, was local in origin.

Redlegs Depend on Nuxhall, He Comes Through

By JOHN GRIFFIN United Press Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Redlegs thought they had a 20-game winner in lefty Joe Nuxhall last season, until aches and pains held him to a jinx 13, but it looks like 220-pound Baby Joe is ready now for that big year.

If Nuxhall can regain his best form, then the Redlegs search for a star pitcher is over and the odds on Cincinnati's first National League pennant since 1940 will drop sharply. And the hefty lefty looked pretty near that best form yesterday.

Going the full nine - inning route, Nuxhall gave up only four hits at Clearwater, Fla., in beating the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-2. He fanned five batters and, though he walked five, was in trouble in only on inning when a hit batsman, a walk and a balk helped the Phillies score twice.

There was glory for another pitcher yesterday - Red Murf. The Milwaukee Braves' much-travelled reliever, Murf, who won his last game with a double, made lightning strike again in the same place - and this time against the world champion New York Yankees.

He was allowed to bat for himself in the 10th with two on and two out. Yankee Manager Casey Stengel pulled his outfield in close, and Murf knocked one of Tommy Bynes' pitches over the center fielder's head for another double to score both runners.

Around the other camps: Yankee ace Whitey Ford was excused from today's game because of a tender throwing arm, but Mickey Mantle seemed to be making progress from his injured left ankle. . . . Al Dark's three-run homer was highlight of Cardinals' 7-4 win over the White Sox as lefty Billy Pierce was rapped for six runs in three innings. . . . Lou Skizas three-run homer led the A's to a 7-3 win over Pittsburgh, on of his three hits. . . . Rookie Rene Valdes of Brooklyn made another good showing, allowing only three singles in 4-2 innings in an 8-3 win over Washington. . . . Ace Frank Sullivan of the Red Sox seemed in shape, allowing the Cubs one unearned run in seven innings. . . . Bob Nieman's two-run homer in the ninth inning gave Baltimore a 5-4 win over the New York Giants, although the Giants still lead the Grapefruit League with a 12-6 record.

Turner, Logart Fight Tonight

Logart, 23, racked up a unanimous but close decision over the aggressive Turner in a blistering battle in the Garden 17 months ago and is a 2-1 choice to repeat.

I thought I beat Logart the first time," said the 26-year - old Turner. Now I'll prove I was right.

Logart is ranked second to former champion Tony DeMarco in the contenders list and his manager, Eddie Macoz, has offered $50,000 to welterweight champion Carmen Basilio for a championship contest.

A loss to Turner could ruin, or at least delay, Logart's title fight hopes. Turner was a 13-10 favorite the first time.

I beat Turner before and I know I can do it again," said the Cuban. Sure, I want Basilio, and my manager has the money to put up, but I cannot remain idle. And if I win good, the public will back my fight for the right to meet Basilio.

Porkers to Open Baseball Season

FAYETTEVILLE, (UP) - The University of Arkansas baseball team opens its 20-game season here today against the University of Missouri Tigers.

Coach Bill Ferrell of the Razorbacks said the teams may have to play each other on the Fairgrounds park due to the wet condition of the University field.

Ferrell said he's aware the Tigers have been plagued with bad weather, and suggested that some very unpolished squads may take to the field today.

Arkansas Derby to Be Run Saturday

HOT SPRINGS (AP) - Four nominees for the Arkansas Derby apparently were to pass up the closing day feature to compete in the $3,000 Veterans Day handicap on today's card at Oaklawn Park.

Derby lighties named for the 6-furlong top event today were Dave Ferguson's Bonjo, Dover Stable's Colonel Ed, Ted Yohum's Count Sickle and F. O. Atkins Flashy Fellow.

Others entered were B. R. Murrow's Stella Way, J. Walsh's Royal Blue Gem, Leo Cailliet's Here Comes Joe, E. K. Carey's Twilight Run, R. J. Clark's Dick's Gray, H. W. Herndon's Dusty Tiger, Mrs. N. M. Hulls Adeline Dasher, and G. R. White's Challa Pocket and Mrs. F. O. Atkins Big Coupon The latter was on the also eligible list.

Colonel Ed, who has one victory and two seconds to his credit, was assigned top weight of 118 pounds. His victory was scored over a field that included Flashy Fellow and Bonjo.

Bonjo, an Arkansas bred, came here fresh from a victory at the Fair Grounds, but two rather remote thirds have been his best showing at Oaklawn. Flashy Fellow finished second in one event and fourth in another.

Stella Way, Dusty Tiger and Adeline Dasher have won at the current meeting. Big Coupon has been unable to score but has finished twice in the money. The others have turned in mediocre performances.

Bowit Stable's Champ Sorter, winner of five straight at the Fair Grounds in New Orleans before coming to Hot Springs, defeated seven rivals in the $2,700 Matreure yesterday. The winner outdistined Emil Denemark's Big Power by a neck, and covered the six furlongs in 1:12 3-5. H. J. Wise's Snazzy was third.

Champ Sorter returned $17,600, $8,600 and 3.80.

Jockey John Delahoussaye and trainer Grover Noel combined for a winning triple in consecutive races.

They scored first with Twin Wilows ($7.80) in the third, with Gen's Baby ($4.25) in the fourth and with Judge Ray K. ($5.00) in the fifth race.

Okie Dokie and Beyond Wards made up an $83.20 daily double. The mutual handle yesterday totaled $528,344.

St. Louis and Celtics Open Pro Playoff

By BOB HOBBING

BOSTON (AP) - The Boston Celtics and St. Louis Hawks open the final series of the National Basketball Association playoffs tomorrow because of a trade which proved decisive for both clubs.

The 1:30 p. m. (CST) game at Boston Garden, nationally televised, opening the best-of-seven series marks the first time either team has reached the finals.

A major factor is the deal which brought 6-10 All America rookie Bill Russell to the Celtics in exchange for easy Ed MacAuley and Cliff Hagan.

Boston made the trade with the Hawks for the rights to Russell who starred for the U. S. Olympic team last November.

Despite its great shooters, the Celtics never before had the backboard control of a champion.

Russell played only 48 of the 72 regular season NBA games but hauled in 943 rebounds for fourth highest in the league. A defensive genius, he guarded his men tightly while drawing few personal fouls and proved amazing at blocking shots.

Not noted as a scorer, Russell nevertheless finished fifth on the club with a 14.7 average.

Mac averaged 16.5 points to 24.7 or Pettit who is expected to shed the cast from his injured left wrist tomorrow.

Owner Ben Kerner of the Hawks a superstitious man, is torn between hope and doubt by the idea Bob Pettit may discard the cast from his injured arm for the playoffs.

Kerner hates to change anything when his team is winning and the Hawks won five straight in gaining the finals.

If it means any greater movement for him, I'm all for it," Kerner said. But they've been going very well with his arm in the cast.

The cast was taken along, just in case.

KILLED BY TRAIN

CARDWELL, Mo. (AP) - A Cotton Belt freight train struck and killed Frank Martin, 63 on a railroad trestle approach to the St. Francis River west of Cardwell yesterday.

The engineer, A. C. Shumway of Paragould, Ark., said he saw Martin lying on the tracks, apparently asleep, but was unable to stop the train in time. Martin lived about half a mile from the scene of the accident.
